TRIED TO SINK HER.

At Least the Haytian Republic's Officers Think So.

Legitime's Gunboat Nouvelle Vol-drogne Had a Strange Collision.

Perhaps Her Tiller Ropes Were Out of Order on Dec. 20.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Jan. 18.—It has just leaked out that the steamship Haytian Republic was run into by the Haytian gunboat Nouvelle Vol-drogne on the night of Dec. 20, inflicting but slight damage to either vessel.

The Haytian gunboat was entering the harbor of Port-au-Prince at full speed, and could have steamed to her anchorage without any change of course, but within two hundred yards of the Haytian Republic her helm was suddenly put to port and remained so until she struck that vessel.

Then her engines were reversed and she backed to a distance of 200 yards.

She then again steamed at full speed until a short distance from the Haytian Republic, when her course was slightly changed, thus just missing her.

The gunboat was hailed both times, but no answer was made. Neither did her captain attempt to ascertain the extent of damage she had done or offer assistance.

After ascertaining the damage done, the Galena sent an armed boat's crew to the offending gunboat, where a statement was made that jamming of the tiller ropes was the cause of the collision.

It is the opinion that it was a deliberate attempt to sink the released ship.

It is a question whether the scheme was originated by a higher authority than the captain of the gunboat.

Aboard of the Galena the officers met the next day and a demand for investigation was made upon the Haytian Government.

It is reported that the matter will be further considered and redress demanded upon the return of the Galena from Kingston, Jamaica, on Jan. 9, whence she steamed on Jan. 1, to coal and communicate by cable with the American Government.

On Dec. 31, Legitime offered to pay an indemnity of $100,000 to the owners of the Haytian Republic. This will be accepted, one-half payable immediately and the remainder in installments.

The released steamer was then, at the request of B. C. Morse, the owner, turned over to him by Admiral Luce. The crew will be cabled for from Kingston, and she will return to New York about Feb. 1 with a cargo of logwood.

Admiral Luce has written to Secretary Whitney that, in the event of an illegal seizure of any other American vessels he would "demand their release at the cannon's mouth."

Legitime continues his arrests of alleged conspirators, many being of persons supposed to be his supporters.

No organized conspiracy seems to have existed, but only individual dissatisfaction.

Hippolyte remains camped about twenty miles from Port-au-Prince, awaiting the overthrow of Legitime by his own people and the peaceful surrender of the city.

By not using force he wishes to win the approval of the southern departments of his candidacy for the Presidency.

THE GALENA HEARD FROM.

Admiral Luce Reported at Kingston That There was No Yellow Fever Abroad.

An Atlas Line steamer, which arrived in this port to-day, reports that the United States steamer Galena was at Kingston, Jamaica, on Thursday, the 10th inst.

Admiral Luce reported on that day that they had got rid of yellow fever, and that there was no sickness whatever on board the cruiser.

There is great activity at the Navy-Yard to-day, the Atlanta having been ordered to Port-au-Prince to relieve the Galena. The Atlanta is expected to sail to-morrow morning.

Here Is Some Union Pacific News.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

BORTON, Jan. 18.—James H. Bromley retires from the office of assistant to the President of the Union Pacific on the 1st of March. Mr. Bromley's duties in this position, which he has held for the past four years, have been chiefly in connection with the effort to procure a settlement of the question between the Company and the Government. It having been decided that no further effort in this direction will be made after the present Congress, the department heretofore in Mr. Bromley's charge will be discontinued.

Over 100 English Miners Entombed.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

LONDON, Jan. 18.—There was an explosion of fire-damp to-day in the Hyde Colliery near Manchester.

Seven bodies have been taken from the mine. One hundred persons are still entombed.

Cure Your Catarrh, or Get $500.

For many years the proprietors of Dr. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY, who are honorably responsible, financially, as any one can easily ascertain by proper inquiry, have offered, in good faith, through nearly every newspaper in this land, a standing reward of $500 for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad, or of how long standing, which they could cure. The remedy, which is sold by druggists at only 50 cents, is mild, soothing, cleansing, antiseptic and heal-

Havana Cigar-Makers Strike Against an Old Reduction.

Three Firms Give In at Once to the Men's Demands.

It is the Busiest Season of the Year, and the Strikers are Very Confident.

All the cigar-makers employed in forty Havana cigar manufactories in this city went on strike to-day against a reduction of $2 per 1,000 which the bosses made eighteen months ago.

The strikers are mostly Cubans, with a sprinkling of Americans and Spaniards. Their work is all hand-made and brings the best prices in the market.

For the past year and a half prices for making Havana cigars have ranged from $16 to $40 per 1,000 and the strikers want the figures raised to the old rates of from $18 to $42 per 1,000.

The strikers have no permanent organization, and, singularly enough, say that when they had two independent unions they were beaten and forced to accept a reduction, but without any permanent organization—only a temporary one for the occasion—they have succeeded in maintaining the prices they demand; and that is the course they are now pursuing, with every confidence that they will succeed.

This is a busy season in the manufacturing business, and the strikers say the firms must yield at about this time. Three firms, Las Trujillo, of 105 Maiden lane, Honda, of 78 William street and Lopez, at John and Pearl streets, have announced their intention to grant the strikers' demands and restore the old rates.

The largest firm in the trade is that of Lozano, Pendas & Co. in Pearl street, who employ 100 hands. Other leading firms are Lozano, Pendas & Co., Bica & Garcia, E. Cordeiro & Bro. and the Starlight Manufacturing Company.

Over 1,000 hands are out. The manufacturers cannot obtain men here skillful enough to take the places of the men now out.

LOOKED LIKE A MURDER.

But the Body Proved to Be that of a Deceased Woman Who Threatened Suicide.

Two reports came into Police Headquarters to-day. The first was as follows:

At 10 o'clock this morning the drowned body of a woman was found at the foot of East Sixth street. The body had on a black dress and a wooden hood. A handkerchief was bound across the woman's mouth. The dead-wagon man sent for to convey the body to the Morgue.

The report caused quite a sensation among the Headquarters detectives and policemen, who looked upon it as a murder mystery requiring instant action. An alarm was being prepared for transmission to all the precincts, when the following report came in:

Caroline Frederick, forty-seven years old, of 77 First avenue, disappeared at 8 o'clock last night. Her husband, Henry Frederick, of 125 East Sixth street, reported this morning by a neighbor-in-law, Henry Miller, of 125 East Sixth street, that he had seen his wife had committed suicide, as she was demented and often threatened to end her life. She once attempted it by jumping into the river, but was rescued.

Investigation by an EVENING WORLD reporter showed that the drowned woman answered Caroline Frederick. The latter's description of his mother-in-law, and that there was little if any doubt that she had jumped into the river as she said she would do when she left home.

SWEENEY'S TRIAL NEARLY OVER.

Mr. Howe Sums Up for the Defense—The Court-Room Very Crowded.

The case of Alexander Sweeney, indicted for complicity in the murder of Watchman Hannon, will probably go to the jury late this afternoon.

Assistant District-Attorney Dos Passos for the prosecution moved this morning to strike out Police Capt. Ryan's testimony wherein he says that Hannon in the hospital exulted over Sweeney of any complicity in the crime.

Judge Gildersleeve decided to allow it to go in evidence however.

Then Lawyer Howe began to sum up for his client.

Mr. Dos Passos will follow, and then the case will go to the jury.

Part III. Court of General Sessions, where the trial is going on, was crowded to-day.

MRS. HARRIMAN WILL MOVE.

The Scandal Surrounding Kitty Cody's Death Induces This Decision.

The funeral of Kitty Cody-Dudgdon, the young girl who died in Brooklyn, a victim to her own folly, was set for to-day, and her body was taken to Locust Valley last night.

Arrangements were made to have the interment take place in the Cody's family plot in the cemetery as early as possible.

Capt. Kennedy's detectives are still working on the case, but have learned nothing new.

Mr. Dos Passos, at whose house the Cody girl died, says that on account of the scandal she is going to move to other quarters.

Daring Kidnap Firebugs.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

ELIZABETH N. J., Jan. 18.—Firebugs in this town tried, during the night, to destroy the Franklin street public school, one of the largest buildings here. Great excitement and indignation prevails among the inhabitants, and a committee for a public meeting to appoint vigilance committees to protect the town.

BUSCH'S ESCAPE.

Rescued from Ward's Island by His Friends in a Launch.

The Astors' Crazy Butler Enjoys a Brief Spell of Freedom.

Caught in the Carleton House and Taken Back to the Asylum.

Charles H. Busch, formerly butler in the Astor family, was taken back this morning to his cell in the Ward's Island Insane Asylum, from which place he escaped nearly three weeks ago.

Great reticence is manifested by the officials.

Busch was arrested at the Carlton House, corner of Frankfort and William streets, last night. The blotter at the police station says that Detective Parazzo, of the Central Office, assisted Keeper James O'Reilly in making the arrest.

Busch took his arrest very coolly and appeared to be rational on all subjects except in relation to the Astor family.

Then he would rave about them. He was removed to Bellevue Hospital, and this morning at 7:30 o'clock was marched aboard the Thomas S. Brennan and taken to the island.

During his stay at Bellevue he was confined in Dr. Douglas's Pavilion.

At the Carlton House very little was known of Busch. He paid for his room regularly every day and never conversed with the clerk or any of the inmates.

He used to go away early in the morning and return at night.

This incident will bring to mind Busch's antics while employed in the Astor family. Busch was a good butler and a real nice-looking old man. He is fifty-eight years of age.

He never discovered how good-looking he was until one day he fancied that he saw Miss Carrie Astor smile. Astonished, he proceeded to a mirror, where he surveyed himself. He discovered that he was indeed a devilish good-looking fellow, and there-after he made toilet with remarkable care.

One day he made a most remarkable find. In his diseased imagination he discovered that Miss Astor was in love with him. He was promptly discharged, but this did not deter him from annoying Miss Astor and her family. He was arrested, adjudged insane and sent to the Asylum on Ward's Island.

There he pined away for some time, but gradually became so rational that he was allowed the freedom of the island.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to escape from Ward's Island.

His escapades had passed from the public mind, but his friends, who are apparently Henry H. Busch, director of the defunct Farmers and Mechanics Bank of the South Side, for the alleged misappropriation of funds amounting to nearly $200,000, has caused a great deal of excitement in the city.

Mr. Voight was cashier of the bank for nineteen years. Last April he resigned to go into other business, and in September the bank failed, a heavy shortage having been discovered.

After the suspension an expert was put to work, and the arrest, it is alleged, was made on information received from him. On Tuesday President Sorg and Hugh Lafferty and a new law firm, consisting of the defunct institution, went before Alderman Schaffer and preferred four charges against Voight of embezzlement, perjury and falsifying accounts.

The matter was kept quiet until last evening, when Voight was arrested and placed in jail at midnight, in default of $40,000 bail.

A Manitoba Half-Breed Finds the Body of His Wife Perished.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 18.—Sixteen years ago a half-breed named Holade buried his wife twenty miles from this city. A few days ago he exhumed the remains intending to convey them to another burying-place.

Upon opening the coffin the body was found to be perfectly preserved, the eyes and mouth being partly open and the hair quite black and natural. An attempt being made to lift the remains it was found quite impossible as they were completely petrified.

An examination showed that a small spring of alkali water had been running through the coffin, and the action of the water on the remains caused petrification.

Assistance was procured and the remains were raised to the surface and brought to this city, where they were weighed. The weight was found to be 700 pounds.

THREE ARE HELD FOR RANSOM.

Additional Particulars of the Arab Attack on the German Missionaries.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

LONDON, Jan. 18.—Later despatches somewhat mitigate the horror of the first reports of the native attack on the German mission station at Tugon on Sunday, and it is now said that only four missionaries were murdered during the attack.

Three others, however, were carried off, and are now held for ransom by their captors, one of them being a woman. Two male missionaries escaped.

The German squadron has landed a detachment of marines to garrison Dar-es-Salaam.

Will Not Divide Dakota.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The House this morning resumed consideration of the Territorial bill, the pending question being the MacDonald substitute for the Springer Omnibus bill. The substitute provides for the immediate admission of South Dakota, and it was rejected by a vote of Yeas 117; Nays 124.

Killed Himself Instead of a Skunk.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

GROVERSVILLE, Mass., Jan. 18.—David W. Babson, of Figeon Cove, went out to search for skunks last night. His body was found this morning, with the head nearly blown off. It is thought the wire over the wall caught the trigger of his gun, causing it to be discharged, killing him instantly.

Editor Snatched Acquitted of Libel.

The jury in Judge Lippincott's Court, in Jersey City, to-day acquitted Editor William E. Backett, of the News, of the charge of criminal libel brought by Thomas Potter, the wealthy Jersey City contractor and late candidate for Congress.

Warden O'Rourke Congratulated.

To-day being the fourteenth anniversary of Warden James P. O'Rourke's installation as Warden of Bellevue Hospital, he is very busy receiving the congratulatory of friends. The Warden is proud of the fact that he has never been before the Chamberlaine on any charge, and has never been absent from post except during vacation.

Bartlett and Cushing to Meet.

Harry Bartlett, the English light-weight, and Mike Cushing, will meet to-morrow morning at the Police Gazette office to make the final deposit of $250 each and arrange for their fight to a finish for $500 a side.

DEAD IN HIS ROOM.

A Putnam House Guest Ends His Life with a Bullet This Morning.

C. A. Anderson, a guest at the Putnam House, was found dead in his room there this morning.

His death was the result of a pistol-shot wound in the head, self-inflicted.

The revolver with which he had killed himself was found by his side.

He was sixty years old, and his home is unknown to the hotel people.

He registered at the hotel at 10 o'clock last night.

Making Maple Sugar in January.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Jan. 18.—The farmers from Windsor and Savoy have brought in considerable maple sugar which they have made this month. The sap has run well from maple trees for several days. This is the first time in more than half a century that maple sugar has been made in January.

GREENWALD GUILTY IS FAN IN TOWN?

His Second Trial Ends in His Prompt Conviction.

He Now Awaits Sentence for Murder in the First Degree.

The Prisoner Took the Verdict More Calmly Than His Counsel.

The second trial of John Greenwald for the murder of Lyman S. Weeks, in Brooklyn, came to an end at about 1 o'clock this afternoon, when the jury, after being out an hour and twenty minutes, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Surprise was depicted on the face of the prisoner's counsel as the verdict was announced, but Greenwald himself remained stolid.

The prisoner was remanded to the Raymond Street Jail to await his sentence.

Ever since his election to the bench of the Kings County Court of Sessions, Judge Moore has had an aversion to sending out a jury at night to decide any trial.

Consequently, when, at about 6 o'clock last night, District-Attorney Ridgway concluded his summing up for the prosecution in the case of John Theodore Well, alias John Greenwald, on trial for the murder of Lyman S. Weeks, the judge discharged the jury for the night, requesting them to be on hand promptly at 10 o'clock this morning.

At the time named the twelve men fled into their seats. They looked somewhat refreshed by their rest after yesterday's long session, and seemed to be pleased that they would not have to listen to another six hours, summing up.

Greenwald occupied his usual seat, and his counsel, Charles F. Kinsley, sat beside him. Both were attentive listeners to the Judge's every remark.

Mrs. Weeks and her mother were again present.

John Moore's charge was perhaps slightly in favor of Greenwald. He reviewed all the evidence adduced, but refrained from making extended comment. After defining the different degrees of murder and recommending the jury for their verdict they had paid during the four days to all the proceedings, he sent the twelve to their room.

It was 11:30 o'clock when they retired, and after deliberating a little over an hour they brought in the verdict of guilty, as stated above.

EX-CASHIER VOIGHT'S ARREST.

Charged With Misappropriating Nearly $200,000—An Expert's Discoveries.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 18.—The arrest of Henry F. Voight, late cashier of the defunct Farmers and Mechanics Bank of the South Side, for the alleged misappropriation of funds amounting to nearly $200,000, has caused a great deal of excitement in the city.

Mr. Voight was cashier of the bank for nineteen years. Last April he resigned to go into other business, and in September the bank failed, a heavy shortage having been discovered.

After the suspension an expert was put to work, and the arrest, it is alleged, was made on information received from him. On Tuesday President Sorg and Hugh Lafferty and a new law firm, consisting of the defunct institution, went before Alderman Schaffer and preferred four charges against Voight of embezzlement, perjury and falsifying accounts.

The matter was kept quiet until last evening, when Voight was arrested and placed in jail at midnight, in default of $40,000 bail.

IS SHE HERE, SHE IS KEEPING PRETTY WELL OUT OF SIGHT.

Said to Have Violated Section 528 of the Penal Code.

Is Taking Money for Fake Seances the Same as False Pretenses?

Mr. Carroll's Very Interesting Work on Spiritualism.

FAN AND ANN.

Mr. Carroll is now ahead. Medium Ann has second place. Two believers were well bled in this little spirit race.

Medium Ann built pictures and Priestess Fanny Stryker went. Both Ann and Fanny were very bold while they both believers bled.

Very stout is Medium Ann. Ann and Fanny are both well fed. Growing stout is Priestess Fanny. It was for this believers bled.

Medium Ann striped gowns has worn, and didn't like 'em, it is said. Will Priestess Fanny these same stripes don't?

Well, it all depends. Ann got her stripes because she not only "believers bled," but talked about it. Fan is mumm as an oyster. Therein her mediumistic head is level. But yet it all depends. Perhaps section 528, chapter 4, of the Penal Code may still apply. At any rate we are sorry for Tobias.

"Prithie, fair maid, is the Rev. Mrs. Stryker at home?"

AN EVENING WORLD young man put the question in all seriousness this morning to the maid who answered his summons at the outer door of the apartments occupied by Spook Priestess Fanny Stryker, in the Lenox Hill flat house, No. 987 Madison avenue.

"Aye she is indeed, but she will see thee not," responded the girl.

"And why, pray?"

"Because, good sir, she will have naught to do with reporters."

"Indeed, and how know you that I am a reporter?"

"Alack a day, sir, I know thee well, because none but reporters come here nowadays."

"But she will see me, Hasten, pretty one, and tell her that an 'investigator' awaits at the portals, anxious to learn something of Spiritualism, of which he has seen much in the newspapers of late."

Reluctantly the girl went on her mission, returning a few seconds later with the tidings:

"My mistress fears you are a reporter, and as I foretold thee, will not see or be seen."

Then the reporter asked for Tobias, Fan's husband.

"He warned me early that he was out to all reporters," she said.

"Is Mr. Carroll at home?"

"Nay. Some time since he hastened away to his stationery store on Fourteenth street."

Just then a terrific ring of a bell inside made the girl jump and say:

"Adieu, gentle stranger. My mistress must wait."

IS SHE AMENABLE TO THE LAW?

The Evening World young man thought so too, that is, if Fanny was there at all, which some people doubt. Since the exposure of her dealings with Mr. Carroll she has not been seen in or about the house, and it is not known what is the elevator boy in the building says. He declares that he has been ordered to death by people inquiring for her, but that they have had to go away without seeing her. Being told she was not at home, she has not been near the Eclectic Medical College, which she had attended daily, since Tuesday.

They do not expect her back either. It is the growing belief that she has become frightened thinking of Ann O'Dell's fate, and that she has quietly slipped out of town.

Although the reporter went from her flat direct to Stationer Carroll's place, this morning, he could not find that gentleman there. His clerks said he had not been down yet.

Neither was he at his lawyer's office, No. 71 Broadway. The lawyer was not there either. A pretty lady clerk said she did not think Mr. Carroll or Mr. Levy would discuss the matter, or of any other person, or obtain from such, possession by color or aid of fraudulent or false representation or pretense, or of any use or benefit therefrom, or to appropriate the same to the use of the taker, or of any other person, either taken from the possession of the true owner, or of
